Chancellor Behr To Serve on One Minnesota Advisory Board

The board will advise the incoming administration through its transition to the governor's office.

University of Minnesota Morris Chancellor Michelle Behr has been invited to serve on Governor-elect Tim Walz's "One Minnesota Advisory Board." Led by Lieutenant Governor-elect Peggy Flanagan, the group of mayors, CEOs, and religious and community leaders will advise the new administration through its transition to the governor's office.

The transition advisory board was announced Friday, November 16.
